

IN THE WOMAN'S WORLD

WORK OF 'BIG SISTERS' IS ORGANIZED; CIRCLE STARTED

Either the widespread interest that was aroused last week when the Kilo-hana Club called a meeting for the purpose of discussing the advisability of having a "Big Sister" movement here is waning or the Christmas duties are claiming more of the women's time, for there were hardly a score present at the meeting yesterday afternoon.

The representation was, however, of Honolulu's thinking women and each and every one there was enthusiastic about the movement.

Mrs. F. E. Steere, who is at the head of the movement, presided at the meeting. In her little talk she told of the many things along the line of investigation in the matter that have outraged Honolulu that have been occupying her time during the past week. She not only visited the Circuit Court but also made two trips to the Juvenile Court, where a number of cases regarding little children were brought up.

The real purpose of the meeting was to discuss the advisability of having the Big Sister movement here associated with the Associated Charities or with the Kilo-hana Club. There was some feeling expressed as to having it associated with the Kilo-hana Club and many of the women thought it best to have it an auxiliary of the Associated Charities. It was finally decided that they would be a circle within themselves and elect a president, secretary and treasurer.

Then, when they have passed their series, it will be decided as to which of the two organizations they will be affiliated with.

Mrs. Steere was asked to consider having a committee of one to nominate the next officers. This she will do at the meeting which will take place on the eighth of January.

General Meeting in January
On the fourth of January there will be a meeting of all of the heads of the philanthropic societies in Honolulu.

Though the meeting will not be held until after the first of the year many of the ladies have already gone to work for some of the little girls who are sadly in need of big sisters.

At the opening of yesterday's meeting Mrs. Steere told of a few cases where big sisters could be helpful and just before the meeting adjourned Miss Maynard gave a list of forty-two girls some of them juveniles and some of them past the juvenile age who have or need big sisters.

A number of the little girls she told of had been disobedient, some of them were just wilful and others had gone so far that either a big sister will have to get right in and lend a guiding hand or their cases will go so far that the inevitable will happen and they will be called into court.

At the close of the meeting several of the ladies took the names of those girls from Miss Maynard and then and there took up the work of a "Big Sister."

MORNING MUSIC CLUB PLANNING AN ACTIVE YEAR

February—Sonatas, Symphonies; Light Opera Arias.

March—Concertos, Fantasias; Folk Songs.

April—Spring Songs for voice or instrument.

May—Dance Forms, Fairy Tales; Song Cycles.

WOMAN REFUSES TO PAY TAXES

Taxation Without Representation Is Tyranny for Women As Well as Men

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Miss Belle Squire, president of the No Vote, No Tax league of Illinois, whose motto is, "Taxation without representation is tyranny for women as well as men," outlined her objections to paying taxes in a letter addressed to County Collector O'Connell last night. It is in reply to one from the collector threatening suit for non-payment of taxes.

In the communication she asks if it is not illogical to try to collect taxes on her little furniture, while millions of dollars' worth of income-bearing stocks and bonds lie in vaults overlooked, and adds:

"As for 'delinquency,' it has no terrors for me. I much prefer it to meek submission to an intolerable indignity. Nor do I fear unpigant notoriety. I am inured to unpleasant notoriety, for I was born a woman, which is still thought to be sufficient reason to keep the creature so born meek and puny."

REDLANDS PRIEST SPEAKS MIND AT WOMEN'S MEETING

'Stay Home and There Will Be No Need for Juvenile Protection'

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Nov. 23.—Rev. Father E. J. Fitzgerald of Redlands caused a sensation at today's session of the women's club of this county, called to organize a Juvenile Protective association, by declaring that women's clubs in a great measure were responsible for the very thing they had gathered to discuss.

Father Fitzgerald made it plain to the women that he believed mothers would accomplish far more by giving their attention to their homes instead of clubs, and declared if they did so the children would be better cared for.

He said that the children of the city were being neglected and that the mothers were not doing their duty.

Mrs. Ella S. Westland, president of the Federated Women's clubs for the southern district, replied to Father Fitzgerald's rebuke. She said women's clubs had done more than anything else to improve home conditions and protect children.

MAUITES TO SEE 'REVOLVING WEDGE'

The play "The Revolving Wedge" given by the students of the College of Hawaii at Thanksgiving is such a success that the members of the cast have decided to take the play to Maui where it will be presented during the Xmas holidays. This plan was suggested by a member of the cast and met with unanimous approval. The management corresponded with H. P. Weller, manager of the Maui theaters, for information as to all particulars and the answer being extremely satisfactory full plans for the trip were arranged.

The cast and coaches are to leave Honolulu on the Claudine, Friday, December 27, for Kahului, December 28 the first presentation of the play is to be given at Paia. The following Monday, December 30, the second performance will be given at Kahului. The third and last performance is to be given at Wailuku, Wednesday, January 1. The cast will then return to Honolulu to resume school the next week.

Considering the success of the play as given at Thanksgiving there is no doubt but that it will be a still greater success on this Maui tour. The play, as previously mentioned, is a football romance in one act dealing with the old and the new ideas of the proper observance of Thanksgiving day. The leading part, Mr. Martin, is to be taken by Clayton Couzens, who made such a hit at the recent production of the play. The Irish maid, Nora, taken by Miss Shirley Foster, is another part which made a great hit. The many amusing incidents which she creates succeeds in bringing down the house every time. The other parts will be taken by the same persons as before with the exception of Bob Leslie Clark, who was so successful in that part at Thanksgiving, will be unable to accompany the cast to Maui but his place is to be taken by Chase Foster. The cast will then be as follows: Mr. Martin, Clayton Couzens; Nora, the Irish maid, Miss Shirley Foster; Nell, Miss Bernice Smith; Bob, Chase Foster; Captain Bolan, Scott Pratt; Mrs. Martin, Miss Lilian Boyd; Dr. Brown, Harold Starratt; Ned Biddle, Ted Tracy.

All money, over expenses, derived from this trip is to be used at the College for the construction and support of a tennis court which the students have long been trying to procure.

DR. O'CONNOR TO ADDRESS ENGINEERS

The regular meeting of the Hawaiian Engineering Association will be held at McKinley High School at 8 p. m. tonight.

Dr. J. M. O'Connor will address the Association on "Chemical Methods of Concrete Analysis." Dr. O'Connor has made a very exhaustive study of this subject and his talk will treat of the new petrographic methods of analyzing concrete.

A large attendance of members is requested.

HUGHES CO. FAREWELL TONIGHT

HUGHES COMPANY WHICH WILL BID HONOLULU PLAYGOERS "ALOHA" TONIGHT IN BIG SPECIALTY SHOW AT THE LIBERTY THEATER.

There was only one happy pair "behind the rag" after the show at the Liberty last night, and those were the winners of the Texas Tommy contest. All the other competitors reckoned it was a skin game, especially the Hebrew comedian, who, after rehearsing at the theatre at 9:50 a. m., with his partner and spending much time, temper and perspiration, not to mention his laundry bill, surely picked himself as the winner. He even went so far as to buy a new $5 Brownie camera in advance with his prize money, and today he is a sadder, but wiser man.

Tonight, in addition to "A Day at the Races," produced by special request, each member of the company will present new specialties, and the Texas Tommy winner, Miss Phillips, will give a solo dancing turn. Tonight's show will be the last Honolulu will see of this talented aggregation for two years, as their tour includes the Orient, Australia, and possibly South Africa. The Royal Hawaiian Band will give them a farewell concert tomorrow afternoon on board the Nippon Maru, which is advertised to leave at 2 p. m.

Manager Levey and his partner, Bob Hughes, have now four big shows on the road, and they hope to book their "farical" comedy company through the Orient in about three months, en route for Australia.
